CONFIRMED STRIKE DAY

Teachers strike Day is on next Tuesday the 13th November.

School will be closed for instruction on this day.

We are very appreciative of continued Whanau support to better conditions, more support for priority learners and additional pay to attract and keep teachers in the profession. 😊

Parent Behaviour

We love seeing parents and whanau in our school but, sadly, not if they are abusive or intimidating to children or staff.

As well as abuse being totally unacceptable, it is extremely frightening for students to see and hear this behaviour. Not good role modelling at all. This is an emotional health and safety issue.

By law, we have to provide a safe environment and this is not happening with examples of disgusting behaviour that, sadly, seem to be on the increase.

We have had two incidents this week where staff have been abused. Following police advice, we will be issuing trespass notices.

If there is a concern or an issue, please come and see DP Reuban or me. We will be able to address any issues.
