Pasifika in the Bay festival On 24 October Knisha Ruland from our office had the privilege of attending the Pasifika in the Bay festival held at Greerton Village School. This festival is organised by a small group of Pasifika teachers from Tauranga and Te Puke. The festival has doubled in size and is a great celebration of all cultures coming together to celebrate the Pacific Nations. This year also saw the inclusion of some of the secondary schools, which is pleasing to see. Well done to the organising committee and Greerton Village School for hosting this amazing event.

THANKS FOR SUPPORTING OUR TEACHERS IN THE TEACHER STRIKE

Anne, Reuban and Kimberley are conducting a face to face survey with whanau in our playground. It is an anonymous survey. We would like some feedback, suggestions, concerns etc that we can present to the board to help us next year. We will also consider and incorporate findings into our Strategic Plan 2019-2021.

Please do not email or contact staff except Anne before the hours of 8.00am and after the hours of 6.00pm.

We are starting to look at Class lists for 2019. Please make an appointment with Anne to discuss any thoughts for your children in 2019.
